

Chicago

Wish You Were Here Tours	The value of local step-on guides is that they are not only versed in the history, geography, art, architecture, and cultures of the city but also in current events and local trends. They not only live in the city, but “live the city” and bring to the tours their own personal experiences and adventures.
Wrigley Field Tour	The Friendly Confines is a historical landmark on the north side and is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues. The ivy-lined outfield walls, historic man-operated scoreboard and the bleacher bums rallying the team to victory, makes catching a game at Wrigley a must stop for any sports fan.
The Hancock Observatory	Hancock Observatory will meet your loftiest expectations! Experience spectacular views spanning up to 80 miles and 4 states. An open-air viewing area like no other. Feel the wind in your hair and find out firsthand why they call Chicago the Windy City!
The Sears Tower Skydeck	You haven't seen Chicago until you've seen it from the Sears Tower Skydeck. The best view of Chicago and beyond from the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere.
The Shedd Aquarium	Strap a mask and flippers onto your imagination and chart a course to Shedd Aquarium. Have you ever sailed the Pacific Northwest on a whale-watching cruise? Gotten eye-to-eye with a shark? Or followed a sea turtle as she soared through the Caribbean? At Shedd, it's all possible.
Lincoln Park Zoo	The zoo has been a natural, free oasis for generations of animal lovers, who come to hear a lion's roar echo off nearby apartment buildings, see gorillas climb trees as the Sears Tower looms in the distance, or forget where they are as they immerse themselves in tropical rainforests, dry-thorn forests or spacious savannas.
Museum of Science and Industry and Omnimax Theater	The Museum of Science and Industry, one of the most beloved and visited museums in the world, has origins that are tied to two great World's Fairs and to civic spirit and imagination. Performance Location at Great Hall and Rotunda.
The Field Museum	Combining the fields of Anthropology, Botany, Geology, Paleontology and Zoology, the Museum uses an interdisciplinary approach to increasing knowledge about the past, present and future of the physical earth, its plants, animals, people, and their cultures.
Navy Pier	Navy Pier is the place where tourists from around the world have come together since 1995 to enjoy the beauty and the thrills of a day on Lake Michigan. From rides to restaurants, exhibitions to entertainment, shopping to dining cruises and tour boats Navy Pier has it all - in a location unlike any other! Performance Location.
Adler Planetarium	The museum is home to two full-size planetarium theaters, including the world's first all-digital projection StarRider Theater and one of the world's most important antique instrument collections. The Adler is a recognized leader in science education, with a focus on inspiring young people to pursue careers in science.
